Competitive Company Team

Company consists of dancers that are both technically advanced and committed to the Company yearly schedule and guidelines. As a member, one needs to attend their required classes and rehearsals on a consistent and regular basis. We share a common goal of becoming the best dance company possible but base our evaluations and selections on an individual basis. While we value the commitment of all members and encourage the family dynamic we have created, it is important all dancers and parents understand a dancer’s placement is based on their current level as a technician and performer in addition to their commitment to weekly rehearsals; Seniority is not criteria used for the dancer placement.

The director(s) of Company direct all facets of the program including but not limited to dancer placement (level/routine), choreography, costume design, competitions & conventions selection, props, company attire, banquet, rehearsals, intensives, required classes. The Company Committee is composed of a group of volunteer coordinators that support the director(s) and company members.

Pre Company

The Pre Company team consists of dancers who have not yet achieved the technical level necessary for Company dances or who cannot make the same time commitment. They have 1 – 3 routines throughout the year and may attend 1-3 conventions, 2-3 competitions as well as perform at special events. Many of our Company members started on Pre Company. This is a great team to be on if it is your first-year auditioning for our studio and want to get a taste of what Company is like.

The Pre Company Team Director will direct the program in collaboration with the Company Directors including but not limited to choreography, costume design, special performance event selection and rehearsals – this includes the selection of competitions and conventions.

FAQ's: Company/Pre Company

What should I expect at auditions?

Please arrive several minutes early to check in and stretch. Dancers will be excused at the end of the audition. No Parents or Spectators Permitted. Please clear all lobby areas prior to start time.

What should I wear & bring to auditions?

Please wear tight fitted dance pants/shorts and top (sports bra, leotard) that allow the dancers to move. Dancers should not wear baggy clothing, making it difficult to determine correct placement. Jazz or lyrical shoes may be worn. Please plan your audition attire accordingly. Also, bring a water bottle to ensure proper hydration.

How do I prepare for auditions?

It is recommended that you take a Jazz or Ballet class and/or continue working on your dance technique. You may also want to take a stretch and conditioning class to increase your core strength and flexibility as well as build your stamina. Your performance score will play a vital role in the audition process.

Do you have alternate positions?

Alternates are chosen by the director(s) and/or choreographer(s) at the beginning of the season and will be based on commitment and talent. Alternates replace non-alternate dancers in situations where a dancer is injured, absent from rehearsal, unprepared, or has an excused emergency. Alternates are considered at auditions but are not always taken.

When will the audition results be posted?

- Audition results will be posted immediately following auditions
- New Member Meeting at 7:30 PM (new parents & dancers welcome)

What if I have conflicts with the audition dates?

If you have an emergency or family event such as a wedding or funeral, please contact Soul Shock regarding your situation and discuss additional options/make up audition date. (soulshockauditions@gmail.com)
